FAMILY EMERGENCY PLAN: PREPARING YOU AND YOUR FAMILY

In case of an emergency, such as being arrested or in the event of a natural disaster, it is important to have a prepared family emergency plan. Having an emergency plan that family members are familiar with will help keep families calm and safe.

PREPARE YOURSELF:	PREPARE YOUR FAMILY:
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <input type="checkbox"/> Always have some form of identification with you (if you have one). <input type="checkbox"/> Keep a card with the names, numbers, and addresses of contacts you can talk to in times of emergency (for example, an immigration lawyer or community organization). If possible, memorize these numbers. <input type="checkbox"/> Make sure your family has your A-Number* (if you have one), full name, and date of birth. <input type="checkbox"/> Make sure your family has any immigration documents in a folder so they can show them to an immigration attorney in the event that something happens. Also, make sure a family member or a trusted friend knows your immigration history. <input type="checkbox"/> Review and remember your rights when encountering the police, immigration, or customs agents. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <input type="checkbox"/> Plan with your family beforehand about what to do, who to contact, and where to meet in case of an emergency. <input type="checkbox"/> Make arrangements in advance for child or elderly care. Remember to include these contacts in your child's school emergency card. <input type="checkbox"/> Constantly update everyone's contact information and put it in a place that is easily accessible. <input type="checkbox"/> Keep copies of all immigration documents and other important documents in a safe place or with a trusted friend.

*Your A-Number is the 8-9 digit number that begins with an "A" on your Green Card or Visa.

KNOW YOUR RIGHTS:

WHEN ENCOUNTERING THE POLICE, IMMIGRATION, OR CUSTOMS AGENTS

Whether you are a citizen or not, you have rights under the United States Constitution.

Under the 5th Amendment: You only need to give your name and do not have to answer any other questions by the Police, Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) or Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE). You do not have to talk to anyone, even if you are arrested.

- ✓ You have a right to talk to a lawyer first.
- ✓ You have a right to ask for interpretative services.
- ✓ ICE may not enter your home without a court order.
- ✓ Don't answer any questions, even though you may be intimidated.
(Only provide your name)
- ✓ Don't allow a search without your permission.
(They can pat you down only)
- ✓ Don't sign anything.
- ✓ Don't show an agent false documents.
- ✓ Remember the contact number for an organization or attorney that can help you.
- ✓ Remember to record the agent's information.
(For example, their name, government agency, and license number)

WHAT YOU SHOULD SAY:

1. I choose to remain silent.
2. I need _____ language help.
3. Ask "Am I free to leave?"
~ If they say NO: Ask to speak with a lawyer.
~ If they say YES: Walk away and don't run!
4. I want to contact this organization/attorney:

Contact number: _____
